KEEN INTEREST IN EXHIBITION MET AT NAPP ISL.

Throughout the province of British Columbia the great attractions to be presented at the Greater Vancouver Exhibition from August 4 to 14 have created tremendous interest, and the management of the Exhibition Association is making substantial arrangements for the housing of the greatest crowd which has ever attended an exhibition on the Pacific slope.

His Majesty's Coldstream Guards Band, the world's most famous military band, has been secured for a four-day engagement beginning on August 4th. Eight concerts will be given during the course of the engagement, and the grandstand has been mapped out like a theatre so that people from a distance may reserve their seats for any of the performances. The rush is expected to be so great that no time should be lost in making arrangements.

On Saturday, August 7, the 40th annual Caledonian Games will be held, and there will be a great parade of over 500 competitors at the beginning of the games. Massed pipe band parades will be a feature, and the greatest athletes in the country have entered for the world championship athletic events. Dancers will number more than one hundred.

The second week will see the big international stampede, an event which will feature the thrills and pastimes of the cowboys and the range, and bring together the greatest string of bucking horses and riders the west has ever seen. This is an event which may never recur in the life of any one, and the management of the exhibition declares that reservations for this event also may be made. The finals will be run off Saturday, August 14. Mr. H. C. McMullon, the man who staged the greatest stampede of all history in Canada, at Calgary in 1912, will be the director-general of the Vancouver function.

Every night in the second week will see the mammoth musical spectacle, "Commonwealth of Nations" (Continued on Page Two)

BASEBALL CLUB DANCE SUCCESS

Special to the Review

FULFORD HARBOR, June 24.—The Fulford Baseball Club held a very successful dance in the Fulford Hall on Saturday, June 19th. A fair sized crowd of people turned up and about $85 were collected at the door. Ice cream, strawberries and soft drinks were sold during the evening and were well patronized. Mrs. Eaton, Mrs. Horel, Mrs. Maxwell and Mrs. Winkeln were in charge of the stalls. After all expenses were paid the sum of $30 was cleared, which goes towards the Baseball Club fund. The orchestra played for the dance and as usual, supplied a splendid program. A very jolly evening was spent and supper was served by members of the club.

EVERYBODY HAD GOOD TIME HERE

Special to the Review

FULFORD HARBOR, June 24.—A baseball match was played at Fulford on June 20th, the teams were Married Men vs. Single. After a merry tussle the Singles won with a score of 31 to 25. Mr. J. Horel was umpire. Some of the men in the married team had never handled the bat before and they found it was not only a tricky job trying to hit the ball but it took quite a bit of manoeuvring to escape being hit by the ball. However, each batter had his own idea of how to dodge the flying missile so no serious collisions between man and ball occurred. In fact, it was quite inspiring to see how gracefully they "Charlestoned" out of the way. So inspiring, indeed, that we must put it down in verse, thus: The ball came whizzing thro' the air, The batter ducked till all was clear, The ball came whirling for the bat, The batter dodged as down he sat, The ball came flying from the right, The batter sought to check its flight, The ball flew evenly o'er the base—Another batter took his place. Still, considering the new team only lost by nine, they could not have done badly at all. As one player remarked, once you get the idea, you get the ball—if you can't "it" always was a big word! The audience thoroughly enjoyed themselves, which goes to prove that it was a good game.

INSTITUTE DANCE

The four teams in the league are making desperate efforts to annex the cup for at least a year. Play has become very keen since this handsome trophy has appeared on the scene. Mr. Walton is to be congratulated in offering this incentive to encourage local athletes to still better performances on the diamond, as this league will furnish all material for the Sidney team in the Commercial Baseball League when needed.

Following is a copy of correspondence between Mr. Walton and officials of the Sidney Amateur Athletic Association:—

I hereby present a baseball challenge cup to be played for by teams from Sidney and district annually in perpetuity, winning team to hold same for one year or until won by another team, and appoint Messrs. FLANNEL DANCE NEXT MONTH

The ladies of the directorate of the North and South Saanich Agricultural Society, composed of the following: Mesdames J. T. Harrison, Mitchell, Birch-White, Turgoose, Tanner, Pope, MacKenzie, Nimmo, Barker, Gold and the Misses E. Jeune and M. Malcolm, will meet in the Agricultural Hall, Saanichton, on Thursday evening next for the purpose of making arrangements for the holding of a "Flannel Dance" in July.

These affairs under the above auspices have always been well patronized and by the indications of the enquiries coming in as to when the next dance will be coming off in the "big hall" at Saanichton the affair promises to be an outstanding success.

Secretary Chisholm reports that the prize bids for the Fall Fair are now in the hands of the printer and he expects to have copies in the mails in the near future.

The officials of the society are sparing no effort to make the 1926 exhibition the best ever held by the society, but they must have the cooperation of the exhibitors, on whom the fair absolutely depends.

According to statistics we have seen the average car costs the average car owner more than the income of the average farmer. Yet the average farmer owns an average car.

The worst wheel of the cart makes the most noise.

Everyone makes a mistake now and then, but Albin Carlson asks why pick out a grade crossing for a background?

Customer—Have you a book entitled "How to acquire a Good Carriage?"

Clerk—No, madam, but here is one, "A Dozen Ways to Obtain an Automobile."

The Difference

The handsome cars go rolling by.
All looking swell and fine,
With just about two people in,
While in each Ford are nine.

It is a long lane that has no filling station.

R. N. MacAulay says that a race for the crossing often results in a tie.

A traffic law is something that no motorist will admit that he broke but he pays his fine just the same.

"You can pay for this car as you drive it, S. J. Holland heard an automobile salesman tell a prospect.

"All right," was the reply. "I'll take it. I drive mighty slow."

Why not sentence reckless drivers to walk awhile?

The speedometer, of time doesn't go fast enough when you have some undesirable company around.

"Heaven is a million miles away," says a Vancouver clergyman, and some reckless drivers seem destined to make it on one gallon of gas.

The corner saloon is no more, yet we have a filling station there.

This tells the sad story of Oliver Lord—

He walked round a street car in front of a Ford.

A high school boy drives to school every morning in a much dilapidated machine.

"What kind of a car you got there, boy?"

"R.F.D.," was the answer.

"R.F.D.—What the heck?"

"Yip. Rescued from the dump."

The office optimist saved money by painting his own car. He says he needed a new suit of clothes, any way.

Sixty years ago the South was invaded with carpet bags. Today it is being invaded with tin cans.

Jane—"If I had a car I'd get even with John."

Mary "How?"

Jane—"Take him for a ride and make him walk home."

Old tires have punctuation marks.

Ed. Blackburn says the chauffeur of a go-cart pushes a good thing along.

Speed Cop: You were doing 45.

Flivver Driver: Oh, you flatterer.

12TH ANNUAL HOSPITAL RE- PORT ISSUED

Many of our readers are interested in the Lady Minto Gulf Islands Hospital and we herewith publish the annual report as given out by Mr. W. M. Mount, treasurer, as follows:

Ganges, June 10, 1926.
To the Subscribers of the Lady Minto Gulf Island Hospital:
I beg to submit herewith the twelfth annual report of the finances and accounts for the hospital year ending March 31st, 1926.

The expenditures were greater than for the previous year, but this is largely accounted for by having paid a three-car insurance premium and having had the hospital roof painted, these two items costing approximately $260.00.

The past year has been a very satisfactory one.

The White Little Stolen Church at Windermere

1. The church. 2. The Sinclair's Canyon on Windermere Highway. 3. Bungalow camp at Windermere.

One can tell at a glance that the little church at Lake Windermere, British Columbia, has had a past—and proud of it, too! Nestled among great pine-clad ranges of mountains, on the shore of a silver lake, it is proud of its beautiful site, but prouder still of the way in which it came to be called the "Stolen Church."

How it earned this very unique name is recalled in a recent number of "The Mentor," by Mary Graham Bonner. It is a strange story of simple, devout people who so loved their church that they stole it, and carried it away for over a hundred miles.

When the Canadian Pacific Railway moved its divisional point from Donald to Golden, the inhabitants of Donald packed up and moved, too. Some of them went to Golden, but a few followed the former construction engineer of Donald up the Columbia River to a place he insisted on the river boat to Windermere, was Heaven. It was pretty near it. The steeple and the bell, however, had to be left behind and by the church.

its shimmering waters reflecting the magnificent mountains. Here they settled, and built their dwellings, but in spite of the great beauty of their new home, they could not be completely happy. They missed their little church on the windy hill back at Donald. Plans had been made for the construction of a new worshipping place at Windermere, but they knew that no other church could fill the place of the old one, so dear to them, now sleeping and forsaken, in the deserted village of Donald.

Up spoke the engineer, the leader of the little colony. "He knew what they could do. They would steal it. Move it away at night. Nobody wanted the little church but them; the people of Golden did not love it as they loved it."

So the church was stolen: unshingled, bound up and carried away one night—to Golden by train, thence on the river boat to Windermere. The steeple and the bell, however, had to be left behind and by the church.

time they had returned for them, the people of Golden had wind of the affair, and they were nowhere to be found.

The bishop at New Westminster, too, learned of the theft of the Donald Church and was moved to righteous indignation. He wrote a letter to Windermere commanding the communicants to return the church, or suffer the consequences of the episcopal wrath.

But at Windermere, they were far too busy, every one of them, and too happy, to pay much attention to His Grace's admonition.

Windermere has grown since the Canadian Pacific Railway ran a line through from Golden and built a bungalow camp nearby, and the automobilists pass by in their thousands from Banff and Spokane, and the communion roll of this primitive little church has swelled considerably. It has a steeple now and a bell, too, but until this day, it still proudly bears the name of the "Stolen Church."

Swimming Pool at Chateau Lake Louise Opened

1. Going it alone. 2. Rotarians at opening of the new pool. Two ladies of the party about to test the inviting depths. 3. Caught between the mountain and the water below, this miss seems to be flying up to the sky, while she is really going down.

The second largest swimming pool in Canada has just been opened at Lake Louise. Situated on the Terrace between the Dining Room of the Chateau and the Lake, this new pool is one hundred feet long and forty feet wide. It receives its water from the Virgin depth of Lake Agnes, which is located up in the summer snow zone between two mountain peaks, twelve hundred feet above the Chateau. This water is steam heated to 78 degrees.

The new pool is surrounded by tall concrete columns between which there are gigantic sheets of plate glass giving its walls full openness yet providing a wind-break against cool breezes. The top is entirely open to the penetrating rays of the Rocky Mountain sun. Each of the twenty columns around the pool is surmounted with pot growths of beautiful Rocky Mountain flora which, coupled with the delicate green sills of the plate glass windows and the mountain greyness of the pillars, lends an intriguing attractiveness to the open greenness of the big terraced campus of the Chateau, interspersed here and there with vivid yellow and orange beds of Iceland poppies. A beautiful and unique feature of the pool is the swimming suits, all of which are of a flaming orange color to harmonize with the sloping beds of poppies which run down from the dining room and surround the pool on all sides.

At the deep end of the pool are three diving boards, two of which are three and a half feet high and the centre board ten feet, providing the standard Olympic heights.

Olaf Anderson, famous swimmer and skater, and former life guard instructor at Chicago, has been engaged as the permanent swimming instructor, with an assistant.

A large number of Rotarians attended the first day of the opening of the Chateau Lake Louise pool.

Choice of Dominion Capital To Be Celebrated

1. Entrance to Rideau Canal to Ottawa River before fire destroyed Parliament Buildings. 2. Old entrance to Rideau Canal—Parliament Hill, as it looked 100 years ago, at right—front painting by Clegg at time of opening of Canal, 1826.

In the late summer of 1826 Lieutenant-Colonel John By, of the Royal Engineers, selected the spot where the Rideau Canal should enter the Ottawa River, and in so doing selected the site of what afterwards became the capital of the Dominion of Canada. The centenary of this event is being marked this coming August by a celebration which is expected to be national in character. The Dominion Government has already intimated its intention, not only of taking part, but of signaling the occasion by extension of its works for the beautification of the capital. The celebration itself will include historical pageantry and will draw from the western plains a spectacular "Stampede" as illustrative of one of the historical phases of the development of that broad section of the Dominion.

In making his journey up the Ottawa, Colonel By was not planning for the capital of a Dominion, but striving to strengthen the defenses of one of the outworks of the British Empire. "During this war of 1812-14," says Hammett P. Hill, in a brief history of the construct the Rideau Canal, "the British authorities experienced much difficulty in attempting the defence of the western part of the province. This was owing to the difficulties of transporting men and supplies from Montreal to Kingston, because of the rapids on the St. Lawrence River. They were also faced with the danger of a U. S. army blocking progress up the river by seizing some of the islands near Kingston. The cost of transport from Montreal to Kingston was also excessive, being fifty-four shillings per cwt.

This was the problem which Col. By came out to Canada to solve. He had spent nine years in this country after 1802, when he had been entrusted with the construction of the Martello towers at Quebec and the rebuilding of the Citadel, and he had also superintended the construction of the Cedars Canal near Montreal. The task of building the Rideau Canal, which is 124 miles in length, through uninhabited country, was gigantic at that stage of the development of the country and its successful completion stamps its builder as an engineer of high rank.

The coming of railways has superseded it and rendered it practically useless as a carrier of traffic, but it rendered valuable service in earlier days for the settlement of the Province of Ontario, both east and west.

Three years after Bytown became Ottawa, it was chosen as the capital of the old Province of Canada.

The centenary celebration this summer will last two weeks, from August 16 to 28. The first week—August 16 to 21—will be devoted particularly to the centenary program, which will include an historical pageant illustrating outstanding periods and events in the history of the capital. During the same period the Edmonton Stampede will give a daily program; while arrangements are also being made for holding the Rudder International Power Boat races for two days of that week. Plans are not fully completed for the celebration, but among other proposals under consideration are the erection of a monument to Colonel By. The Dominion Government is also preparing plans for the extension of the Rideau which is such an attractive feature of the city.

factory one in most respects, and it is pleasant to be able to report a balance of $839.36 in cash in the bank and on hand at April 1st, 1926. The only disappointing item in the way of receipts is that of subscriptions which are about $700.00 less than last year.

The number of hospital days was 1,744, a considerable increase over the previous year. Due to this fact, the per capita cost for the year has been reduced to $2.94, being the lowest for several years.

Cash donations have been much larger this year and the thanks of the management are due to the Sunshine Guild, Ganges Chapter I.O. D.E., Women's Institute, Fulford, and the hospital house committee, who have assisted very greatly with a number of individual donors, the expenses of the hospital and in providing necessary equipment.

It is also a pleasure to draw attention once more to the large number of people who continue to supply fruit, vegetables, produce and other articles, too numerous to mention, showing a practical and sympathetic interest in the institution.
